

I object to the NAB's attempt to stop satellite operators from offering services that benefit its subscribers. I choose to pay for the service satellite radio provides. If the terrestrial broadcasters provided equivalent service this would not be an issue before the Commission. I urge the Commission to reject petition 04-160 from the NAB and continue to allow satellite broadcasters to continue to provide service beneficial to all of their customers.